DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. Claims 1-2, 4-8, 10-12, 14-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Maul et al as discussed in paragraph 4 of the last office action. Regarding the fixed limitation, Maul et al show an alternative embodiment with a fixed spacer element 22 as shown in figs 1B and 1C, which reads on the amended claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. Claims 3 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Maul et al in view of Shirk et al as discussed in paragraph 6 of the last office action.
3. Applicant's arguments filed 2/7/2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to applicant's arguments regarding figs 2A-2F, the examiner notes that Maul et al show an alternative embodiment as discussed supra wherein the spacer element is fixed to the piston end as claimed. The piston means that holds the spacer means goes through one reciprocating movement as claimed.

In response to applicant's argument regarding a single piston being used, examiner maintains that one piston is only being used in figures 2A-C and the piston is the only mechanism that is reciprocating. The spacer 30 is only being displaced as the piston is reciprocating. Therefore, the piston means 10 is the only means to reciprocate in one stroke as claimed.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
